

entrepreneur Success SERIES

The festive season is upon us! A time for new beginnings and starting a new page, in business as well as in life.

This issue, aptly, dwells on two aspects of working towards a dream-like objective, in a realistic manner. The first one is the video review about the entrepreneurial zeal of Dr. Devi Shetty of Narayana Hrudayalaya.

The other is the research note - 'Strategy Implementation' highlighting the need of rigorous discipline while executing a series of coordinated decisions in order to realise strategic goals.

Warmly,

A riveting visual journey of how an altruistic heart surgeon built an institution aimed at providing specialist cardiac care to the most needy sections of the society. It is also reflective of how different partners - infrastructure providers, equipment manufacturers and others, can work together for the greater good of the society. More.

Entrepreneur Success Series Strategy Implementation

Every entrepreneur knows formulating a strategy is easy. The true test lies in its implementation.

As is explained in the note, strategy implementation is a dynamic, iterative and complex process comprising a series of decisions and activities by leaders and employees at varied levels. Decisions that work in unison to turn strategic plans into reality. More
